

MYTH BREAKER ON DENGUE FEVER

No need to apply insect repellent
after returning to Hong Kong?

An infected person, though being asymptomatic or before symptom onset, can transmit the virus to a vector mosquito when being bitten, leading to further spread of the disease

Travellers who return from areas affected by dengue fever should apply insect repellent for 14 days after arrival in Hong Kong

